

Homes in Dallas targeted for gold

Dallas, TX: For the last couple of months, several burglaries are happening in Indian houses in Dallas area. In fact, four houses have been robbed on the same day in a span of three hours in one apartment complex in Dallas. All these burglaries happened in a similar way on August 2.

“It is very unfortunate to note that these kinds of number of incidents occurring in our Indian homes. This is an organized crime and these thieves target only Indian family homes knowing that our Indian women wear a lot of jewelry. These thieves don't touch any valuable items except the gold. I alert all Indian families not to keep any gold in their houses except daily wear and keep everything in bank safe deposit lockers,” Prasad Thotakura, TANA secretary, said.

Dharmakar and Madhavi went for a walk, and on return noticed that their house has been robbed and lost 400 grams of gold which was worth $14,000. Talluri Krishna family came back from the temple and shocked to notice that they had lost all their valuables in their home. Similarly, the Golla Vengaiiah family left their house only one hour for dinner and found that their house had been robbed in the same apartment complex. Koneru Sunil's family lost jewelry worth $25,000 in Plano City in a similar way.
