

Thotakura to Serve on Board of World Affairs Council in Dallas

The World Affairs Council of Dallas/Fort Worth has selected Prasad Thotakura, a community activist, as a member of its board of directors. He will serve for three years on the 60-member board, a press release said. Thotakura, the executive vice president of the Telugu Association of North America, also serves on advisory boards of the Dallas Conventions & Visitors Bureau and Dallas Kids Read, and is the Texas state coordinator of the Indian American Friendship Council as well as chairman of the steering committee of the Mahatma Gandhi Memorial Dallas project. The World Affairs Council seeks to promote international awareness, understanding and connections through its programs.
